

Privacy Policy

Thank you for visiting the Town of Wytheville website and reviewing our privacy policy. The following statement has been developed to demonstrate our commitment to your privacy. Our privacy policy is clear: We will collect NO personal information about you when you visit townof.wytheville.org unless you choose to provide that information to us.

If You Send Us Personal Information

The security of the personal information you provide to the Town of Wytheville is very important to us. If you choose to provide us with personal information – such as an email or by filling out a form and submitting it to us through our website – we use that information to respond to your message and to help us get you the information you have requested. We treat emails the same way we treat letters sent to us - we do not collect personal information for any other reason than to respond to you. We only share the information you give us with another government agency if your inquiry relates to that agency, or as otherwise required by law.

Cookies

The Town of Wytheville website uses cookies only for analysis of this web site. No personal information is collected. A Cookie is a small file that your web browser places on your hard drive when you visit our web site. When you re-visit our website, our cookie does not actually identify you, it just indicates that your computer has visited our site before. By knowing how and when guests use our site, cookies assist us in tracking user trends and patterns to help us improve for future use.

Security and Links

The Town of Wytheville site includes links to other sites, and when you choose to visit those sites, we are not responsible for their privacy policies or how they treat user information. We may permit third parties to offer registration-based services through our site. We are not responsible for the actions and policies of these third parties, and you should review the privacy policies of these parties when supplying personally identifiable information to them.

Additional Information

The Town of Wytheville reserves the right to alter our Privacy Policy as business needs require. Any changes will be posted to our web site in a timely manner. This statement and the policies outlined here are not intended to and do not give you any contractual or other legal rights.
