

Resolved To Live or Die:
Living History on the Eve of the American Revolution
Saturday, June 22

10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Homestead Living History Museum Site

Parking: 975 Tazewell Street (Visitors Center) Wytheville, VA

Tickets: $5 (adults); $2 (Age 12 & Under)

Demonstrations Include:

Fincastle/Montgomery County Militia

Drill Demonstrations

Civilian Life in Loom House/Gardens With

Games, Cooking and Home Life

Sarah Blanchett (African-American Interpreter, 18th Century Life For Slaves)

Spinning/Weaving

Gunsmithing; Blacksmithing; Saltmaking

Traditional Music by Jim Lloyd

PRESENTATION: Reading Of The Fincastle Resolutions, 11 a.m & 3 p.m. By Jeff Briggs, Fincastle/Montgomery County Militia of Southwest Virginia Living History Group